OPEN EVERYDAY
IT WAS THE 13TH OF APRIL IN 1907... WHILE THE CITY WAS IN THE MIDDLE OF A SEVERE ECONOMIC CRISIS, THE FIRST REPAIR SHOPS WERE BORN - AND THEY WILL BECOME THE ALFA ROMEO; WHILE THE CITY CENTRE ROADS WERE STILL TRODDEN BY VEHICLES TOWED BY HORSES, WHILE THE FIRST SUFFRAGETTES WERE OUTRAGING WITH THEIR QUEST FOR EMANCIPATION... JUST A HOP FROM SANT’AMBROGIO AND THE LAST SUPPER, A NEW PLACE WOULD OPEN ITS DOORS AND LEAVE ITS MARK ON EVERY MILANESE, REGARDLESS OF AGE OR SOCIAL CLASS.

AT THE CROSSROADS OF THE ARTERIAL STREETS IN THE LIVELY URBAN TRAFFIC, QUITE CLOSE TO THE SACRO CUORE UNIVERSITY (WHICH MOVED JUST BESIDE THIS CHARMING SPOT IN 1932), BUT MOST OF ALL WITH ITS WELCOMING SPACES AND ITS CLASSIC, EARLY-CENTURY LIBERTY STYLE, IN MEMORY OF THE BEST TRADITIONAL ASBURGIC CAFÈ TOGETHER WITH THE POSSIBILITY OF CREATING ONE’S OWN PERSONAL SPACE WHERE ONE CAN SPEND THE FREE-TIME ABSORBED IN READING, IN CONVERSATION, IN TASTING, OR JUST IN OBSERVING THE MOTLEY CREWS WHO HAVE ALWAYS HANGED OUT THERE... BAR MAGENTA: TODAY

OPENED IN 1907 AND NEVER BEING OUT OF FASHION

Besides its monuments and museums, even the smallest corner of Milan might represent an icon of the Zeitgeist and atmosphere that Milanese enjoy everyday; among these corners, we definitely find the Magenta Café. Be careful; this isn’t just a bar nor a club nor a pub: it’s the Magenta Café. A truly Milanese will know about it, and any tourist will be more than happy to pay a visit to what is an authentic icon of the city. Throughout its centenarian history, the Magenta has seen all sorts of tricks; it makes the perfect and disenchanted storyteller of Milan. The Decò walls and furniture are imbued with the moods (once fumes) of each culture and subculture, of all the crowds who have crowded its round, pewter and silver counter.

Today the Magenta Café represents the Italian tradition with its legendary sandwiches and beers, and it is a landmark for Milan’s nightlife. Thanks to such sandwiches as the ‘Special’, the Magenta has come to be an institution for the Milan. The Café makes the perfect bond between quality products and the Italian art of food with its unusual but extremely balanced flavours. The Magenta Café promotes the Italian art - especially paintings and photography - thanks to its coordination with art galleries and international artists. Also, the Café is a promoter of the underground cultures typical of a metropolis - with special attention to the new cultural trends. Last but not least, live music: the Café hosts young musicians with an already noteworthy curriculum as well as rising bands with its acoustic sets which perfectly fit in the bar’s liberty contest to create that perfect atmosphere which is tuned with the regulars’ soirées. Not a simple Café; also a cinema: Celetano’s ‘asso’ - as well as some short films’ festivals like ‘aperitivocorto’.

Range from Milanese intellectuals to business men at lunch break, from the coolest artist to university students, from models to common people, the Magenta is liberty and liberalist. Better than any other metropolitan chameleon, the Magenta adapts to Che Zeitgeist. ‘Cause if it’s trendy, you will find it here.
